

Michael Parkinson

Community Engagement

Michael Parkinson came to the Waterloo Region Crime Prevention Council in 2004 after several years in a variety of community development adventures and direct service work with low income populations.

In partnership with the full breadth of citizens and organizations, Michael's passion continues to be about improving the quality of life for all in the Regional community and is grateful for the opportunity to be placed at CPC.

Current work at CPC is focussed on a variety drug-related issues including policy and program planning.
