

TWO FILMS ABOUT COCAINE

Clemens Mills Library
50 Saginaw Parkway, Cambridge
October 20, 2010
7:00 P.M.

Cocaine Angel (U.S.A., 2006, 75 min)

Cocaine Angel captures a grinding and tragic week in the life of a weary young drug addict who is clinging to the remnants of his once hopeful existence amidst the stink, the sweat, and unforgiving heat of Jacksonville, Florida

Drugstore – Cocaine (Spain)

This documentary is a useful tool for providing information on the prevention of cocaine consumption. The film depicts young people, as well as professionals and the general public, describing their experiences with the substance. The brief format and simple language of this documentary aims to provide a fresh point of view.